

2010 Catherine Strobel Volunteer Awards set

Nominations were accepted for the 24th annual Mary Catherine Strobel Awards for community volunteers by Hands On Nashville on Feb. 10 at the Franklin Marriott Cool Springs Hotel and Conference Center.

There are six categories: Civic Volunteer Group, Community Impact Volunteer, Corporate Service Project, Direct Service Volunteer, Volunteer Innovator and Youth Volunteer.

Individuals, groups, business or nonprofit organizations were permitted to nominate volunteers for consideration as a Mary Catherine Strobel Volunteer Award recipient.

The Mary Catherine Strobel Volunteer Awards (presented by HCA/TriStar) are named in memory of the late Mary Catherine Strobel, known for her extensive and charitable efforts toward improving the lives of Middle Tennessee's homeless, impoverished and less fortunate populations. The established awards celebrate Strobel's service and recognize those who continue her legacy.

Hands On Nashville is Middle Tennessee's volunteer resource agency. Hands On Nashville creates and manages opportunities for adults, families, teens, children and companies to transform their world through volunteer service.

Hands On Nashville challenges everyone to find a way to give back and to with their motto: "Be the Change, Volunteer." To find out how, check out www.hon.org or call 298-1108.
